Pentecost 4

Father's Day

“Can You Say, ‘Daddy’?”

Galatians 4:6 shares that the Spirit gives us the ability to say, “Daddy!” to God. How important to have God in our lives as men. How important that men are fathers or like fathers to the children around them.

Pentecost 5

“Feeling Alone?”

Elijah is running for his life. No one wants to listen to him. He needs God's reassuring presence and power. Feel alone in life? God brings His presence to you in quiet, yet powerful ways through His Word and messengers in Christ.

Pentecost 7

“Summer Fruit”

Paul's beautiful prayer in Colossians 1:10 brings out the joy of having God's fruit growing in our lives.

Pentecost 8

“Take a Break, Will Ya?”

The familiar story of Mary and Martha is the Gospel for this day. Maybe it's still the middle of the summer and you haven't “taken a break”. The best breaks are those at the feet of Jesus.
